Abbeys Pick and Mix Homework

- Choose your weekly homework from the menu below
- Homework is due every Wednesday
- All ⭐ activities need to be completed across the half-term
- Challenge yourself with the 🏆 activity at least once across the half-term.
- Reading should be completed daily and is the most important part of your homework
- Spellings should be practised as much as possible before the weekly spelling test
- Additional Maths homework will be set weekly

If your child needs support with their homework, please encourage them to speak to their class teacher.

Topic	English	Maths
Fact poster: Create a fact poster all about Bletchley Park. Include facts only, not opinions! ⭐	Poetry: Write a poem about WW2. You could write an acrostic or rhyming poem. ⭐	What is my answer? 100 = d, 5 = e 1. d x e x e = 2. d ÷ [ ] = e
Art: Draw or paint a picture of the old and new Bletchley Park. Identify key changes underneath using bullet points.	Information Text: Create an information booklet explaining how Bletchley is famous for codebreaking! ⭐	Code Breaking 🏆 Invent your own code for code breaking and leave your teacher a hidden message!
Code Breakers: Investigate Bletchley Park code breakers and write a PowerPoint presentation. 🏆	Newspaper Report: Write a newspaper report on the discovery of the Enigma Machine.	Random act of kindness Carry out a random act of kindness and record what you did and how you felt. ⭐
Enigma Machine: Draw the Enigma machine; write a short description of how the machine works.	Instructions: Write a set of instructions for deciphering an unknown code. ⭐	Wartime Word Problems I have an answer of 265 miles. Create a wartime themed word problem to give this answer.
Historical Timeline: Create a timeline of events from WW2. How does Bletchley Park link to WW2? ⭐	Diary: Write a diary entry as if you were an evacuee in WW2.	Four operations (+ - ÷ x) Explain the four operations' and their written methods. ⭐
WW2 Sculpture: Create a sculpture of a WW2 fighter plane. 🏆	Comic Strip: Make a comic strip version of WW2, identifying key details and events. 🏆	Times tables Practise Use TT Rockstars to practise your times tables. Can you be the highest scorer in your class?