Under the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006, we can only offer you a job if you have the right to live and work in the United Kingdom. You will therefore be requested to produce appropriate documentation.

DISCLOSURE OF CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

All posts involving direct contact with children are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. However, amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account. Guidance about whether a conviction or caution should be disclosed can be found on the Ministry of Justice website or by going to <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/dbs-filtering-guidance>

Shortlisted candidates will be asked to provide details of all unspent convictions and those that would not be filtered, prior to the date of the interview. You may be asked for further information about your criminal history during the recruitment process. If your application is successful, this self-disclosure information will be checked against information from the Disclosure and Barring Service before your appointment is confirmed.

A conviction will not necessarily bar you from obtaining employment. However, failure to disclose any criminal convictions, in the event of your employment, may result in disciplinary action or dismissal without notice.
